

① Kunsthal Aarhus Skulpturpark → J. M. Mørks Gade 13 ② Per Kirkeby, FRAM (2008) → Aros Allé 2 ③ Phil Price, Snake (2013) → Mølleparken ④ Blu, Icons for Now (2008) → Grønnegade 6 ⑤ Andrzej Kowalczyk, Fløjtespilleren (1991) → Borggade 2 ⑥ Astrid Gjesing, Af vand er du kommet (2012/2019) → Åboulevarden 33

⑦ Gudrun Steen Andersen, På Kanten (2001/2012) → Mathilde Fibigers Have 2 ⑧ Marc Moser, Sea Pink (2011) → Jette Tikjøbs Plads ⑨ Elmgreen og Dragset, Magic Mushrooms (2015) → Hack Kampmanns Pl. 2 ⑩ Tove Storch (2020) → Mediebyen 3 ⑪ Katharina Grosse, Untitled (2017) → Mindeparken

Bike Art Tour

Aarhus is full of art – we have chosen 11 sites not to be missed on this route to contemporary public art in Aarhus. Not all public art is easy to find. Af vand er du kommet by Astrid Gjesing is located underneath a bridge right in the inner city of Aarhus. Have a nice trip!

① Kunsthal Aarhus Skulpturpark. Sculptures in different colors and materials from all over the world. → J. M. Mørks Gade 13

② Per Kirkeby, FRAM (2008). Three-meter tall trapezoid. → Aros Allé 2

③ Phil Price, Snake (2013). Winner of Sculpture by the Sea 2013. → Mølleparken

④ Blu, mural from Icons for Now (2008). Socio-critical painting created in three days. → Grønnegade 6

⑤ Andrzej Kowalczyk, Fløjtespilleren (1991). Manet, Matisse, or Kowalczyk? → Borggade 2

⑥ Astrid Gjesing, Af vand er du kommet (2012/2019). A hidden artwork by the water. → Åboulevarden 33

⑦ Gudrun Steen Andersen, På Kanten (2001/2012). Two bronze sculptures in mid-jump and free fall. → Mathilde Fibigers Have 2 (Kvindemuseet)

⑧ Marc Moser, Sea Pink (2011). A pair of sunglasses by the sea. → Jette Tikjøbs Plads

⑨ Elmgreen og Dragset, Magic Mushrooms (2015). The City of Aarhus from a different angle. → Hack Kampmanns Pl. 2

⑩ Tove Storch, Public artwork in front of Jyllands-Posten's new headquarters (2020). → Mediebyen 3

⑪ Katharina Grosse, Untitled (2017). Painted nature. → Mindeparken